- v. All membership expulsions will be automatically appealed by means of the procedures outlined in Section 5, below.

Section 4. Procedures

a. Lodging of Complaints

- i. All complaints from members shall be made in writing, in letter form to the President, and signed by the complainant. Should the Executive Committee become aware of a possible ethics violation, the President or President-Elect will appoint a three-person Assessment Committee drawn from the elected members of the Executive Committee to determine if a complaint should be filed. The Assessment Committee will have 30 calendar days to complete their work. If the Assessment Committee determines a complaint is warranted, the Assessment Committee will submit a letter and documentation, as prescribed in IV-a-ii below, to the President or President-Elect for review and any further action as specified by the bylaws.
- ii. All complaints shall include adequate documentation or confirmatory evidence such as, but not exclusively limited to, the following:
 - detailed description of the offense,
 - dates,
 - places,
 - witnesses,
 - maps, drawings, photos, or other graphic documents.

- iii. Accusations lacking adequate documentation will not be acted upon.
 - Adequacy of documentation will be initially determined by the President.
 - Adequacy of documentation will also be judged by the Review Committee in the event that the President covers such a committee.
- iv. All accusations of a breach of the Code of Ethics should be filed with the President.

b. Formation of Review Committees

- i. The President shall appoint an Ethics Coordinator who shall chair all ethics review committees, but shall not vote on these committees. The Executive Committee shall consult with the Ethics Coordinator when offering informal opinions on ethical matters. In the absence of a formal complaint, the Ethics Coordinator may bring ethical issues to the attention of the Executive Committee.
- ii. A separate, ad hoc Review Committee shall be established for each complaint.
- iii. Membership of the Review Committee
 - Five members, excluding the coordinator, drawn from the membership of the council.
 - The President shall draw by lot the names of five Voting members to serve on the Committee, in addition to the Ethics Coordinator. Members excluded from the Committee under provisions of Section 6 of this Article shall not be included in the drawings.
 - The Ethics Coordinator shall serve as Chair of the Committee.
 - No other members of the Executive Committee shall serve on the Review Committee.
- iv. No member may refuse membership or service on a Review Committee except in demonstrated cases of conflict of interest or severe hardship.
- v. Each party to an investigation shall be permitted to challenge without explanation two selections for the five-member Committee.

c. Schedule

- i. Within 30 days of receipt of a complaint, the President shall determine whether or not documentation is adequate to proceed. If so, the Review Committee shall be selected within 30 days following the President's decision to proceed. The accused shall be notified by Certified mail on the date that the President determines documentation to be adequate.

- ii. The first meeting of the Review Committee shall take place no later than 60 days following the President's acceptance of the complaint.
 - iii. A decision concerning the action to be taken with regard to a complaint shall be made by the Review Committee within 60 days of the first Review Committee meeting.
 - iv. Requests for appeals of Review Committee actions must be made to the Ethics Coordinator within 30 days of notification of the action.
 - v. Appeals will be heard at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Council following notification of the action.
- d. Responsibilities
- i. The Ethics Coordinator shall preside at all Review Committee meetings.
 - ii. The complainant and the accused must both be present at the initial and final Review Committee meetings. Attendance at other Review Committee meetings is at the discretion of the Committee.
 - iii. The complainant must provide all documentation of the complaint as requested by the Review Committee.
 - iv. Copies of all documentation shall be provided to the accused by the Review Committee.
 - v. The Council shall bear all costs for reproduction and dissemination of all documents.
 - vi. Only the Review Committee shall make notification of the results of its deliberations. There shall be no circulation of the results of Review Committee proceedings prior to the results of the appeal process in suspension and expulsion cases.
- e. Actions: Case decisions shall be made by four out of five votes in the Ethics Review Committee. The Ethics Coordinator and President shall not vote.

Section 5. Appeals

- a. Appeal of Review Committee actions may be requested by either party to a complaint.
- b. Appeals shall be heard in the Committee of the Whole at either a regular annual meeting or at a special meeting of the Council, at the discretion of the appellant.
- c. Appeals of membership expulsions shall be initiated automatically unless the accused requests that no appeal be made in the case.
- d. Confirmation of Review Committee actions in the appeal requires a 2/3 majority vote of the Voting Members present and attending the appeal hearing.

e. The vote shall be by secret ballot.

Section 6. Conflict of Interest: No Council member shall sit on a Review Committee if any of the following conditions are met. Any unusual or special circumstances believed to exist may be referred to the Board for resolution:

--Employer, employee, or supervisor of either party to a complaint.

--Member, employee, or associate of the same Federal or State agency, or educational institution, as either party.

--Relative of either party.

--Employee or associate of the same corporation, or subsidiary of a corporation, employing either party.

--Current advisor-student relationship with either party.

Section 7. Voluntary Review: Any member may request a review of his/her performance in specific cases by means of the procedures outlined above with the proviso that adequate documentation be provided by the requester.

Section 8. Legal Counsel

a. These are deemed to be professional archaeological procedures, and legal counsel may not be used as a representative at Review Committee meetings or appeal hearings.

b. All complaints and responses must be made in person by the parties to the matter.

Section 9. Actions against Officers: An action successfully upheld against any officer, member of the Executive Committee, or any standing committee member is cause for removal from that position.

Section 10. Ethical Opinion: Upon receipt of a formal, written request for an ethical opinion, the Executive Committee in consultation with the Ethics Coordinator can provide an informal opinion on the ethical matter, if the Executive Committee deems it appropriate.

ARTICLE V—MEETINGS

Section 1. The Council shall meet annually in a regular session in the Spring, preferably in February or March, and on other occasions as the membership shall deem necessary. Ten members may request that the President call a special meeting. Notice must be placed in the mail at least 3 weeks prior to all meetings, regular or special.

Section 2. Passage of a motion at an annual meeting will require 3/5 (60 percent) sustainment of the voting Members present, whereas business conducted at a special meeting must be sustained by a 3/5 (60 percent) affirmation by those who respond to a mail ballot.

Section 3. Attendance at meetings is encouraged but is not required to sustain membership.

ARTICLE VI—FINANCES

Section 1. Dues shall be paid to the organization at the rate(s) established for membership affiliation.

Section 2. Finances shall be administered by the Treasurer. Records will be available for inspection by the Membership at all times.

- a. After the books are closed for each fiscal year, there will be review by a financial review committee appointed by the President. Board members shall be excluded from this committee.
- b. If this financial review committee deems necessary, it can require that the Board have an outside audit conducted by a professional Certified Public Accountant.

Section 3. Dues shall be used for the purpose of financing the business of the organization, including but not limited to such things as fees for secretarial services, expenses of officers incurred in the normal course of Council business.

Section 4. Single expenditures in excess of 200 dollars require the prior concurrence of the President; single expenditures in excess of 500 dollars require the prior concurrence of the Executive Committee and shall be within the constraints of available funds.

ARTICLE VII—OPERATION

Section 1. The place of business for the organization will be the street address of the Registered Agent.

Section 2. The most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the procedures at each meeting.

ARTICLE VIII—OFFICERS

Section 1. The Council shall have four officers: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

- a. President. The President shall serve as the Council's representative in all its official affairs and transactions, except those instances where the Treasurer is acting as the Council's Registered Agent. The President will preside over the meetings. The President shall appoint at least 3 active members of the Council to the standing Financial Review and Membership committees, and the Editorial Board. The President may establish other committees as necessary with the assent of the Executive Committee.
- b. Vice-President. The Vice-President shall act with the powers of the President in the event that the President is unwilling or unable to perform appointed duties. The Vice-President is the President-Elect. The Vice-President will act as Parliamentarian and shall carry the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order to all Council and Executive Committee meetings. The Parliamentarian shall resolve all procedural disputes.

- c. Secretary. The Secretary shall announce all meetings to the membership of the Council and shall maintain minutes of all meetings. The Secretary shall provide, at the time of notification of the Annual Meeting, the membership with a written ballot for the purpose of electing officers and Executive Committee Members. The Secretary shall be responsible for maintaining the official files of the organization.
- d. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall keep membership rolls of the Council, shall maintain records of financial transactions in accordance with standard bookkeeping practices, shall serve as the Council's Registered Agent, and is authorized to disburse funds, subject to the limitations specified in Article VI, Section 4. The Treasurer shall provide complete financial reports to the President prior to each announced Executive Committee meeting. The Treasurer will regularly provide membership rolls to the Chair of the Membership Committee.

Section 2. The Council shall appoint or retain a legal Counsel, as needed.

Section 3. The President shall appoint a Newsletter Editor and a Website Manager.

Section 4. There shall be an Executive Committee composed of all officers, Newsletter Editor, Website Manager, Ethics Coordinator, Chair of the Membership Committee, one American Indian Voting Member of the Council, plus five (5) Voting Members of the Council to be elected to the Executive Committee by the membership. One (1) of the five Voting Member seats elected to the Executive Committee shall be reserved for a Student Voting Member in good standing. The Student Voting Member shall assist the Chair of the Student Affairs Committee for the duration of their term on the Council's Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Council and shall adopt procedures as necessary for that operation. The President shall become an ex-officio, nonvoting member of the Executive Committee for the year following his/her presidency. The Newsletter Editor, Website Manager, Ethics Coordinator, and Chair of the Membership Committee shall also be non-voting members of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IX—ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1. All officers, with the exception of the Treasurer and Secretary, shall hold office for 1 year, may not hold office for more than two consecutive terms, and after serving two consecutive terms, must not stand for election for the same office again for 1 term.

Section 2. The Treasurer and Secretary shall hold office for 2 years (the terms will offset), may not hold office for more than two consecutive terms, and after serving two consecutive terms, must not stand for election for the same office again for one term.

In order to provide better continuity between Treasurer officers, a Treasurer-elect will be elected to coincide with the start of the final year of the then current Treasurer position. This provides a year of overlap and training between the Treasurer and the Treasurer-elect. At the conclusion of the year, the Treasurer-elect will transition into the position of the Treasurer. The Treasurer-elect will not serve as an officer or as a voting member of the Executive Committee, but will assume those officer responsibilities once transitioned into the Treasurer position.

Section 3. At the 1979 Annual Meeting two Executive Committee positions shall be filled for 2-year terms, while two positions shall be filled for 1-year terms. Thereafter, two members will be elected each year for 2-year terms. The American Indian Voting Member of the Executive Committee shall serve for a two-year term. The at-large Committee members, and the American Indian Committee member, may not hold office for more than two consecutive terms, and after serving two consecutive terms, must not stand for election for the same office again for one term.

Section 4. The officers of the Council and the other members of the Executive Committee will be elected by a mail ballot of the membership, requiring a simple majority of the votes cast. Results must be announced at the Annual Meeting. The Past-President shall serve as the Chair of the Nominations Committee and shall receive and tally mail ballots. The President shall appoint at least 2 active Council members to the Nominations Committee no less than 60 days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting.

- a. In the case of ties, the following criteria will be used to determine the winner of the election. The winner will be the member who:
 - i. has not held a CCPA Executive Committee position for at least four (4) years, or
 - ii. the member whose name is drawn from a hat from those tied for the position by the President.

Section 5. Candidates must be active members.

ARTICLE X—PUBLICATIONS

The Council shall publish a Newsletter. The President shall appoint a Newsletter Editor and an Editorial Board consisting of three members in addition to the Newsletter Editor. The Council may from time to time authorize the publication of other single or serial items.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended only at a regular meeting by a 3/5 (60 percent sustainment of the voting membership present). Proposed amendments to the Bylaws must be submitted in writing to the Secretary and circulated within the membership prior to the call for a regular meeting.

ARTICLE XII—ADOPTION

These Bylaws shall become effective upon ratification by a 2/3 sustainment of those present at the Charter Meeting on 28 October 1978.

ARTICLE XIII—DISPOSAL OF ASSETS

In the event of dissolution, the Executive Committee shall dispose of all its assets to an educational or scientific institution that is exempt from taxation under the then current code of the Internal Revenue Service.

ARTICLE XIV—VACANCIES

Vacancies of offices will be filled at the discretion of the Executive Committee until the next regular election.

ARTICLE XV—STORAGE OF RECORDS

The records of past and present officers, board members, and committee chairpersons of the council are a valuable asset since they provide historical information about the council. Therefore, such records will be stored permanently at the Denver Public Library. Once a year, the outgoing secretary will call for all records notes, correspondence, minutes, meeting agenda, newsletters, and other such information from the retiring officers, board members, and committee chairpersons. The latter will be responsible for taking or sending to the Secretary the records of the predecessor. The Secretary will, in turn, give those records to the Denver Public Library, which will organize them in a useful fashion. The officers/board members/chairpersons will pass on their own records to their successor.
