

COLORADO COUNCIL OF PROFESSIONAL ARCHAEOLOGISTS
Archaeological Field School Scholarship
for Native American Anthropology Students
Summer 2021

The Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists (CCPA) is offering a competitive scholarship of up to $1,500 for students to attend an archaeology field school in the summer of 2021. The scholarship is for Native American college students who are enrolled in an accredited Anthropology program. The field school should be through a university or college. In lieu of an archaeological field school, the scholarship may be awarded for compensation of costs up to $1,500 for similar training or other educational expenses related to archaeological or anthropological studies; examples of such include (but are not limited to) training in NEPA, NAGPRA, NHPA (Section 106), museum studies, artifact analysis, tribal cultural preservation programs, etc.

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be an enrolled member of a Native American tribe (includes Metis) or hold a certificate of blood quantum.
- Must be enrolled in a two or four-year college or university.

How To Apply:

- Complete the application. Applications are available on Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists' website: <http://coloradoarchaeologists.org/about-us/native-american-scholarship/>
- Write a statement or letter of interest. The letter should address the following points: goals and interest in studying archaeology, reason for selecting the specific field school/training, ways in which the opportunity assists you in achieving your goals, etc.
- Applicants who demonstrate a connection to Colorado are preferred but not required. The connection could include traditional tribal ties to Colorado, Colorado residence, enrollment at a college/university/field school in Colorado, a demonstrated interest in Colorado archaeology, etc.
- Send or email the application with the statement/letter of interest to contact listed below.
- Questions? Contact Bridget Ambler at (970) 570-7770 or bridge4corners@gmail.com.

Schedule:

- Submit application with statement/letter of interest before Monday, April 26, 2021.
- The recipient will be notified within two weeks.
- Funds will be dispersed based on the due date of tuition and fees.

Grant Information:

- All scholarship applications will be reviewed by the CCPA Native American Initiatives Committee (NAIC) in May 2021
- The purpose of the CCPA Native American Initiatives Committee (NAIC) is to foster an atmosphere of cooperation and understanding between the archaeological and Native American communities through a variety of means, including but not limited to professional development of archaeological careers, education and outreach.
- The scholarship recipient(s) will also be announced at the next CCPA annual meeting and in CCPA newsletters.
- The funds will be paid by CCPA directly to the University. If the student drops the course/training, CCPA must be reimbursed in full.
- The scholarship recipient(s) shall provide proof of accreditation to CCPA upon completion of the field school or other training WITH a brief letter/email to the CCPA/Bridget Ambler describing their experience by September 20, 2021.
- Scholarship recipients are encouraged, but not required, to become student members of CCPA and are encouraged to attend the subsequent CCPA annual meeting held the following spring and present a paper on their research.
