

COLORADO COUNCIL OF PROFESSIONAL ARCHAEOLOGISTS

Native American Scholarship

2023

ANNOUNCEMENT: The Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists (CCPA) is offering a competitive scholarship of up to $1,500 for Native American students to attend an archaeology field school, compensation of costs for similar training, or other educational expenses related to archaeological or anthropological studies. Examples include (but are not limited to) training in NEPA, NAGPRA, NHPA (Section 106), museum studies, artifact analysis, and tribal cultural preservation programs. Scholarships are for the summer/fall of 2023. This scholarship is for Native American college students who are enrolled in an accredited Anthropology program.

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be an enrolled member of a Native American tribe or demonstrate descendant heritage with a tribal community
- Must be enrolled in a two or four-year college or university.

How To Apply:

- Complete the application. Applications are available on Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists' website: <https://coloradoarchaeologists.org/scholarship-opportunities/native-american-scholarship/>
- Write a statement or letter of interest. The letter should address the following points:
 - Goals and interest in field of study
 - Description of desired field school or training and how the opportunity assists you in achieving your goals or working with your community.

Applicants who demonstrate a connection to Colorado are preferred but not required. The connection could include traditional tribal ties to Colorado, Colorado residence, enrollment at a college/university/field school in Colorado and demonstrated interest in Colorado archaeology.

May 5, 2023, applications due

May 26, 2023, recipient(s) notified

Submission Information

- All scholarship applications will be reviewed by the CCPA Native American Initiatives Committee (NAIC)
- The purpose of the CCPA Native American Initiatives Committee (NAIC) is to foster an atmosphere of cooperation and understanding between the archaeological and Native American communities through a variety of means, including but not limited to professional development of archaeological careers, education, and outreach.
- The scholarship recipient(s) will be contacted directly and announced at the next CCPA CCPA newsletter.

Payment: CCPA may make payments directly to the University or training provider. If the student drops the course/training, CCPA must be reimbursed in full.

Outcomes: The scholarship recipient(s) shall provide proof of completion to CCPA upon by December 31, 2023. Scholarship recipients are encouraged, but not required, to become student members of CCPA and are encouraged to attend the subsequent CCPA annual meeting held the following spring and present a paper or a poster on their research.

Please submit application and/or questions to:

Bridget Ambler CCPA, NAIC Chair
24456 Road S.6
Dolores, CO 81323
bridge4corners@gmail.com
(970) 570-7770